

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS CONDUCT / EXPECTATIONS

AND

STUDENT ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Presented Fall 2025

All students shall adhere to the following “Business Meetings: Conduct / Expectations / Assessment,” “E-Mail Conduct” and “Honor Code” policies (collectively, the “Course Expectations”), as summarized below and presented in detail the first day of class. Failure to comply with all Course Expectations will impact your final grade.

BUSINESS MEETINGS: CONDUCT / EXPECTATIONS / ASSESSMENT

1. On time / when scheduled / in attendance / prepared
2. Project / assignment deadlines adhered to
3. Ready & involved; unacceptable responses
4. Outside material / business meetings: Not permitted
5. Appointments / No shows / Cancellations - Policies
6. No sleeping
7. Inappropriate departures from business meetings: During / @ end.
8. Inappropriate use of others’ work: honor code
9. Proper names
10. For follow-up questions, for info previously shared, only go to clients/bosses as last resort.
11. Cell phone / communications devices policy: disengaged
12. No food brought into meetings
13. Video Pictures on in Zoom
14. Accountability & Professionalism

E-MAIL: CONDUCT

1. Business time frame - correspondence: business day / after hours / weekend
2. Requirements:
 - a. Subject line
 - b. Opening / salutation
 - c. Request for action: specifics
 - d. Inserts / Attachments: Must be readable/usable
 - e. Closing: Contact info including phone & section

HONOR CODE:

Students are to sign the honor code, available on the University web site and on plaques throughout business classrooms (the "Honor Code"). The code states: "On my honor, as a University of Colorado student, I have neither given nor received unauthorized assistance on this work." Students shall adhere to the Honor Code for any and all work related to this course. Any transgression of the Honor Code will be met with any and all of the University penalties up to and including course failure, suspension, or expulsion.

By signing below, the student acknowledges that (i) the student was present during the presentation of the Course Expectations or met with the professor, (ii) the student has read the Course Expectations and Syllabus, (iii) the student has had an opportunity to ask any questions regarding the Course Expectations and all such questions have been answered to the student's satisfaction, (iv) the student understands the Course Expectations and Syllabus, and the impact failure to adhere to the same may have on the student's final grade and on the student's standing with the University and/or Business School and (v) the student agrees to abide by the Course Expectations and Syllabus throughout the entirety of the course.

Signature: _____

Name (printed): _____

ID #: _____

Section #: _____

Date: _____